

SGI - IELTS Intensive Mini-Group

The IELTS Intensive Mini-Group combines the morning IELTS Preparation classes with an afternoon General English mini-group (13.30-15.00). This is the perfect option to prepare for the IELTS test for anyone that would like extra speaking and listening practice in the afternoon.

What will I do in the IELTS classes?

- The morning IELTS lessons focus on all sections of the IELTS exam. Special concentration on writing is a priority because this section is normally the weakest skill for the majority of students.
- The morning group has a limited number of students so you will get excellent personal attention and advice from your IELTS teachers.
- There is a full IELTS practice test every Thursday (with results the next day), so that you become comfortable with the type of questions and demands of the test.
- The afternoon mini-group allows the tutor to focus on improving listening and speaking skills, both important parts of the IELTS test, through an exciting range of activities.
- You receive stimulating and enjoyable lessons from highly-qualified specialist IELTS teachers so that you progress quickly and achieve IELTS success.

Agata from Poland: "I am a demanding student and now I can say I got more than I demanded! Besides excellent supportive teachers, the school offers a fantastic experience of learning a language in a friendly and sociable atmosphere. After my course in SGI I attained an excellent IELTS result and a place at Oxford University and recommended the school to my sister."
